Massachusetts Releases Final Flood Regulations

This week, the Massachusetts Division of Banks filed final regulations to implement “An Act Further Regulating Flood Insurance” which was enacted last year and became effective November 20, 2014. Included with the final regulations is a redline version and updated FAQs. The final regulations are effective September 11, 2015, with a 60-day transition period until November 9, 2015 to implement the required “Notice About Flood Insurance Coverage.”

We continue to review the final regulations and encourage you to do the same with your compliance and legal departments in order to determine impact to processes and procedures.
